Allen Dulles Heads Conference Here

Allen Dulles, director of the Central Intelligence Agency in Washington, will be the keynote speaker at the tenth annual conference of the World Affairs Council which will be held April 13-15 at Asilomar, it was announced yesterday.

Dulles will speak at a night meeting April 14 on the subject, "New Challenges to American Foreign Policy."

Appearing with him will be Edwin Wright of the United States State Department who was former office in charge of Turkish Affairs.

Eric Johnston, President Eisenhower's special representative on the Jordan River Development Plan, will close the conference April 15 with the exploratory address: "Looking Forward in American Foreign Policy."

Other principal speakers will include Carl Marcy, chief of staff of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee; George M. Hellyer, assistant director of the United States Information Agency, and Jesse M. Tapp, member of the Randall Commission.

More than 600 persons are expected to gather on the Monterey peninsula for the three day meeting which will have as its theme, "United States Foreign Policy in 1956 —What Are Our Aims and How Can We Achieve Them?"

Turner H. McBaine, San Francisco attorney and conference chairman, said reservations to attend the sessions can be made at World Affairs Council headquarters, 421 Powell Street.
